STAT

I called Alice in FBIS and asked her about this. She said that the one referred to here is the 17th edition. The 18th edition has gone to press and should be available around late summer. She said when they get requests for these she sends them a regular form ltr stating that they are available through GPO at about $2.50 per section. She is sending me a copy of her form letter for you to see. I didn't know if you wanted ~~them~~ to just send this up there or not so thought I would do the "leg work" for you. OK?
